Integrated Family Catechesis Workshops

with

Dr. JoAnn Paradise

Our school and parish programs are wonderful. We have marvelous teachers, catechists and YM core members who work tirelessly to help form our children and youth in the faith. However, if faith isn't "happening" in the home, there is a good chance that our kids won't stay Catholic. Our Sunday Visitor is sponsoring Dr. Paradise' workshops here in the archdiocese. Dr. Paradise will travel to both Mobile and Montgomery to give two different presentations in each location.

For our principals, RCs, Catholic school teachers—

Helping Catholic School Parents Make Faith a Priority in their Home

We live in a new age. An age where many Catholic school parents no longer understand themselves as the first and best teacher of the faith. Our Catholic schools are expected to form disciples as the world and what may be happening at home sends conflicting messages. How do we inspire parents to claim their VOCATION as a faith-filled parent? This session will explore the theological foundation and practical ideas to equip, support, affirm and challenge the parents in your school to create a home where the faith is treasured, learned and lived.

For our Parish PCLs, YMLs, catechists, and parish leaders—

Integrated Family Catechesis Is More Than One Gathering

The question is no longer, "Should we do family catechesis?" The question is now, "What are the necessary elements of effective family catechesis?" We will explore the concept of integrated family catechesis that is systematic and intentional as it awakens, evangelizes and catechizes parents leading them to a life of discipleship. All the while recognizing we must equip, support, affirm and challenge parents to see parenting as a vocation. This session will inspire you to meet families where they are and awaken in them the "holy longing" to live in relationship with God and his people.
