

ST. JOHN XXIII CATECHIST PROGRAM

The St. John XXIII Catechist Program is a course of study of the Archdiocese of Mobile to better prepare catechists, youth ministry teams, Catholic school teachers, youth ministry leaders and parish catechetical leaders for catechetical ministry.

Classes comprising the theology component of this program are offered on a monthly basis in parishes and schools throughout the archdiocese.

The spiritual component of the program can be attained through a number of different offerings sponsored by the Department of Catholic Education and others.

The methodology component is offered in the fall and the summer throughout the archdiocese. Special sessions designed for youth ministry leaders and parish catechetical leaders will be held throughout the year.
